

Series Overview

In this series, children will learn that God wants us to know him. Throughout the stories of the Old Testament, we can see God's desire to have a connection with his people. Children will learn through the stories of Joseph, Moses, David, and Daniel as they learn what it means to be known by God and for us to know God.

"Come near to God, and he will come near to you." James 4:8a, NIRV
